Description of your business and expertise (150 – 200 words)
I am a consultant in Human Ressources since 1992, and in 2005 I joined the University of Bordeaux as a part time associated teacher. I have accompanied professionals, students and enterprises in any branch of industry on problems related to innovative project, evolution or adaptation related to the changes of the organizations or human resources. Impassioned by the human being, I am convinced that each person is unique and is the result of his experiences. Passionate about the human being, I am convinced that every person is unique and is the result of his experiences. The red thread of my approach is well-being at work. My objectives are to enable companies, teams and professionals to identify concrete actions to optimize changes, professional positions and capitalize on experiences.
